Greetings,

How are you Please accept my apologies if my email does not meet your personal ethical standards. I would like to introduce myself and this business opportunity to you.

My name is Barrister Sergen Ecesoy of Integrity Law Firm London, I am the personal lawyer of my deceased client who bears the same surname as you.

I am contacting you regarding an unclaimed financial inheritance claim related to your surname. I want to know if we can work together as a team.

I want you to act as the next of kin of my deceased client who has an account worth $40.7 Million USD at a financial institution.

My deceased client died without any registered next of kin and therefore the funds now have an open beneficiary mandate. The board of his bank passed a resolution and I have been mandated to nominate his next of kin to pay this fund or the fund will be forfeited to the bank as unclaimed property.

Fortunately, since you share the same surname as my deceased client, it will be very easy for me to make you his official next of kin.

If you are interested, please let me know so I can give you full details on what we are to do.

Thanks,

Best Regards,
